

STT Enviro Corp has been a leader for over 30 years supplying integrated storage and handling systems for water, wastewater, and bulk materials. Our projects are in mining, oil & gas, power generation and water treatment industries throughout the world.

Position Title: Field Erected Bolted Tank Assembler

Key Responsibilities:

- Prepare groundwork for concrete foundation.
- Position, align and adjust panels for proper fit and assembly, including connecting cables, piping and other appurtenances.
- Fasten parts together using bolting and riveting equipment or other fastening and joining techniques, including, as applicable, the use of the jack system.
- Direct operators of small cranes to coordinate rigging, transporting and positioning activities related to larger parts as required.
- Assist in hydrotest inspection activities.
- Check finished assemblies and subassemblies for alignment and proper functioning, as measured against applicable drawings.
- Perform minor positioning adjustments related to bolted tank assembly.
- Use of small power tools as part of the required scope of work.

Key Qualifications:

- Completion of secondary school is required.
- Construction Safety Training System Certificate (CSTS)
- Up to six (6) months of on-the-job training.
- Ability to lift/carry up to 40 lbs.

Working Environment

- Will need to work outside at varying altitudes and weather conditions.
- Some Warehouse environment.
- 80% Walking, Lifting, Bending,
- 20% Sitting, Stooping, Kneeling, Crouching.
- Extensive travelling throughout Western Canada

STT Enviro Corp offers a benefits package and competitive compensation based on experience. We are seeking innovative and ambitious individuals who enjoy a fast-paced and highly dynamic work environment. Candidates will be challenged to actively develop and improve work processes.

Email cover letter and resume to: aanton@sttenvirocorp.com.